

SAVE THE DATE

Thursday November 3, 2011

The Virginia Department of Health
Tobacco Use Control & Healthy Communities Projects
&
the American Cancer Society
Are hosting the Annual Conference

“Best Practices for Tobacco Control and Prevention”

at the
Westin Hotel in Richmond, Virginia
November 3, 2011
8:30am - 4:30pm

The conference is a one-day event bringing to Virginia renowned speakers from national and state health organizations addressing issues such as:

- The Economic Benefits of Tobacco Control,
- Virginia’s Model Communities’ Best Practices to Improve the Health of Citizens,
- The Benefits of becoming a Tobacco-Free Work Place,
- “Diabetes & Tobacco: A Dangerous Combination”,
- Social Marketing as a Tool for Policy Changes,
- “Health and Place: How Where We Learn, Live, Work and Play Affects Us”
- FDA regulations, and other issues of interest.

The American Cancer Society will host a reception on November 2, 2011 from 5:30-8:00 pm - It’s the perfect opportunity to network and meet some of the presenters and conference attendees.

See you in Richmond!

www.ClearTheAirVA.org website for more information about the conference.

